Section "B"

Marks: 36

- Read the following passage carefully and answer any 8 of the following questions. 18
- Each correct answer carries 03 marks.

One morning, when Hughie came to Trevor's studio, he found him giving finishing touches to a wonderful life-size picture of a beggar-man. The beggar himself was standing on a raised platform in a corner of the studio. He was a wizened old man, with a face like wrinkled parchment, and a most piteous expression. Over his shoulders was flung a coarse brown cloak, all tears and latters, his thick boots were patched and cobbled, and with one hand he leaned on a rough stick, while with the other he held out his battered hat for alms. "What an amazing model!" whispered Hughie, as he shook hands with his friend. "An amazing model?" shouted Trevor at the top of his voice.
