(To maintain the delicate balance between population growth and environmental limitations, there is no single easy solution. All options must be part of the solution. First of all, we should educate people about their actions and their effects on the environment. Moreover, we need to reassess our consumption patterns. We need to reduce the amount of resources we consume: take shorter showers in bathing; say no to the use of plastics; buy less and recycle our waste. If millions around the world adopt this behaviour and manage the growth of population, we will have the opportunity to lead an enjoyable and full life and our future generations will find earth a place, worth living)
